He pickled that one today off little John Warhop, who was charged by Umpire Chill early in the game with what the tennis players would call foot faults. The Rickeyites arrive here this morning, making it impossible to determine the pitching selection. The Griffmen also reach the Capital early today and the Old Fox will probably send either Joe Engel or Jim Shaw to the slab.

There should be a warm welcome awaiting Mike Mitchell, the former National' Leaguer, when he comes to the bat for the first time in Washington this afternoon. Mitchell, it will be remembered, won the first game of yesterday's double bill with a home run.

Get together, fans, and let the weikin ring when the veteran steps up to the plate.

The Federal League has made a tenstrike in securing Fielder Jones, who led the Chicago White Sox to a world's championship, to manage the St. Louis team. Jones retired from the game as a player and manager when at the height of his fame. In recent years he has been president of the Northwestern League, Frequent efforts have been made to get Jones to return to the game, but none succeeded until the Federals made him a tempting offer.
